MAX Employment is a national provider of Australian Government employment services, with over 250 offices in Australia. Max are active in local communities, and are driven to make a difference.

Max believe jobs can change lives. Max empower job seekers, connecting them to support, opportunities and sustainable employment. Max work closely with employers and community partners to provide job seekers with a strong foundation for success.

Max believe that a job is so much more than 9 to 5, Monday to Friday. A job is an income, hope, social network, an opportunity to learn and a chance to connect.
