ECCI ESPERANCE EXPRESS COLUMN

The Esperance Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ECCI) is a membership-based, not-for-profit, non-government organisation that aims to create an environment in which businesses can thrive through representation of the local business community.

The ECCI promotes opportunities for our members and local businesses to be involved in, such as the following upcoming events and activities.

Franchise Opportunities in Esperance – Presentation Evening on Monday 31 October

Charter Hall, in partnership with Jesters, Muffin Break and Esperance Chamber of Commerce & Industry, is pleased to provide prospective franchise opportunities at Esperance Boulevard.

A franchise opportunity evening is scheduled to be held at Esperance Yacht Club on Monday 31 October from 5.30pm, which will have representatives from both Jesters and Muffin Break in attendance. The event provides an opportunity for prospective franchisees or those interested in investing in local business to gain further insight into two leading retail brands. The event will be attended by, Robert Wilson, CEO of Jesters, Randy Mangilaya, Development Executive of Foodco Group, Vic Pardini, Senior Leasing Development Executive of Foodco Group, as well as Leasing and Management representatives from Charter Hall.

Charter Hall's WA Regional Manager, Ross Parker, said: "We are thrilled to be partnering with prominent and successful retail brands such as Jesters and Muffin Break to offer exciting franchise opportunities at Esperance Boulevard.

"Esperance Boulevard is a key asset in the Charter Hall retail portfolio and we are committed to investing in and actively providing a vibrant shopping environment for the Esperance community. The addition of retail brands such as Jesters and Muffin Break reinforces our commitment to providing a convenient retail offer and a place where people can shop, meet, dine, socialise and connect" Mr Parker added.
